If you are like most Americans, you probably work hard and you probably pay your fair share of taxes. (Maybe you pay even a little more than your fair share.) What you get in return for your tax dollars depends a lot on who you are.

If you are poor, you may be getting Federal Housing, food stamps, and other welfare benefits.

If you are rich, you may be getting oil depletion allowances, special low tax rates on your investments, and maybe you are even getting other super special tax deductions.

But what if you are not rich or poor? What if you are like most of us who are just regular people stuck somewhere in the middle?

What do you get then? The answer to that one is easy. You get to keep paying.

And paying.

And paying.

And paying.

It is getting depressing. But what can you do about it? If you are already taking all of your legal deductions and you don't want to move to another country or do something illegal, there is only one thing left for you to do.

You've got to make sure that you are getting every penny's worth of government benefits that your hard-earned tax dollars are paying for. The trouble is that most people don't have any idea of what they have coming from the government or how to go about getting it. For example:

- Did you know that the government will lend a United States citizen $5000 and more at below market interest rates? If . . . the citizen knows how to apply for the loan!

- Protection for your children—a check list of over 200 toys banned as being unsafe for children. Check this list before you buy anything!

- Need insurance? You can save hundreds of dollars in premium rate with low-cost government policies

- How would you like to have your own five acre vacation hide-away? Prices begin as low as $25 per acre!

Do you know the advantage of collecting Social Security benefits before your sixties? Or that 1½ million children receive Social Security checks each month? Would you be interested in a complete foreign language course for only $2.00? How about exciting high-profit insured investments? Or traveling in the U.S.A. and abroad at government expense? How much do you really know about your new Social Security and your new Medicare and your new Veterans benefits?

If you didn't know that you had all of these benefits coming to you, don't feel bad. Not one person in 1000 really knows how to get what they have coming to them in return for their tax dollars. Here are a few more things you can get if you know how:

- ★ Free employment assistance if you are having trouble finding a job because you are not a youngster any more.

- ★ Free help from the U.S. Secret Service to protect you against counterfeit money and forged checks.

- ★ Free plans and architectural designs for 12 different structures—from a three-bedroom house to a boat landing.

- ★ A $25,000 start-your-own-business loan with 15 years to pay it back.

- ★ Free aptitude test that would otherwise cost you up to $25 to find the job you are best suited for.

- ★ 25% to 75% of your rent paid by Uncle Sam if you qualify and know how to apply.

- ★ Free government land to stake your claim when prospecting for silver, gold or other valuable minerals.

- ★ Free government service to help you locate lost marriage or divorce records.

- ★ Free protection for your children against hazardous toys provided by the government Office of Consumer Affairs.

- ★ The right to enter a fabulous government sweepstakes—a public drawing to claim oil and gas rights to public lands. Profit potential ranges all the way up to $75,000!

All of the above and hundreds of other little-known government benefits are available to U.S. taxpayers. The trouble, as mentioned earlier, is that most people just don't know about all of the free benefits that they have coming or how to go about getting them. Even if you could work at it full time, it would probably take you weeks or months to dig up all the information that would be necessary in order to take full advantage of what your taxes have paid for. For years and years, the average citizen has been in the dark because there was simply no practical way to find out about all of these things.

Now there is a way.

Now there is a brand new revised book out called "How To Get What The Government Owes You". It tells about 320 government benefits that most people have never heard of. And it doesn't just tell about them, it also tells you how to get them. It tells you how to qualify, who to contact, (including all necessary addresses), and what to say. The book is broken up into 39 short, easy to read chapters. Here is an idea of what is in some of the chapters:

Chapter 4 tells about what the government has free for boaters. Chapter 5 tells about what is free for businessmen and investors. Chapter 11 is on free financial assistance and loans. Chapter 16 is all about low-cost government land bargains. Chapter 26 tells what the government has free for parents. Chapter 32 tells what is free for senior citizens. Chapter 36 has information on how to buy government surplus. Chapter 38 tells what is free for veterans. Chapter 39 is a special section on what is free for women.

That's just 9 of the chapters. There are 30 more! The book also contains two very special reports. Report 1 is "Who To Complain To In The U.S. Government" (the complete details on who to contact when you have a problem.) Report 2 is "Directory of Regional and Local Addresses of U.S. Government Agencies." (This will help you get faster action on the benefits you have coming.)

If you are a U.S. taxpayer, you should have this book. The book is not now available in newsstands or bookstores. Maybe it never will be. For now, at least, it is only available by mail.

To get your copy, write your name and address and the words "Government Book" on a piece of paper and send it along with $3.00 in check, cash, or money order for each book you want.

Mail your order to: THE GOOD NEWS PUBLISHING COMPANY—7576 Freedom Avenue, N.W., Dept. 1409, North Canton, Ohio 44720.

The book will be sent to you promptly by return mail. It comes with a complete money-back-guarantee.

All orders should be mailed as soon as possible. If you don't take advantage of these benefits, you are only cheating yourself. After all, you have already paid for them.

Checks and money orders should be made payable to GOOD NEWS PUBLISHING COMPANY.
