

If you ever bet on a horse... or sat down to a "friendly" game of poker... or bet on any sports event... you must read this announcement. It might mean thousands of extra dollars in your pocket, a lifetime of leisure, and never worrying about bills or expenses again.

Nick the Greek was the most fabulous gambler of all time. He won over $500,000,000.00. (Yes...that's five hundred million dollars!) And he played everything: poker, faro, dice, horses, roulette, blackjack...everything!

He gave away millions...to friends, relatives, charities and bums. And (unlike so many gamblers) he lived very long...to his 80's...and died very rich.

He was banned from over half a dozen Las Vegas casinos. (He knew too much.)

He lost the biggest pot in the history of poker...$605,000.00. (And he ended $70,000 ahead in the game!)

And he discovered secrets about gambling that are now revealed in a book...GAMBLING SECRETS OF NICK THE GREEK. This book

From the INTRODUCTION

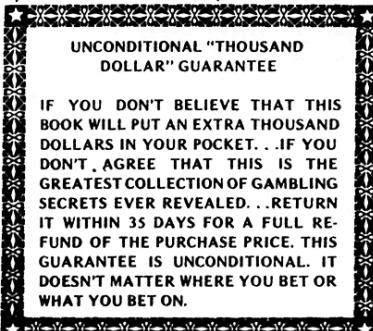

by Groucho Marx

One day, Chico invited me to go to the ball park in Chicago, along with Nick. Before I knew it, I had bet Nick $100 on the ball game. I had never bet over $5 before, but Nick was so persuasive that I finally went for the hundred. I bet on the Chicago Cubs, Nick on the Dodgers. The game was about over and the Cubs were ahead, but there was some technical interference on the base line in the ninth inning. A small riot ensued, and the game was awarded to the Dodgers. I reached over to Nick and offered him the one hundred dollars I had bet on the Cubs. He refused the money, saying that the Cubs had lost on a technicality and that actually they had won. I insisted he take the money, but he wouldn't. . . That's indicative of what kind of man Nick was. . .
